

PHYSICIANS'
CONFIDENTIAL ASSISTANCE LINE

(213) 383-2691 (Southern California)

Completely Confidential Physician-to-Physician Assistance

The services of the Physicians' Confidential Assistance line have been extended to include medical students in California medical schools who are in need of assistance (including assistance with problems with chemical dependency). The assistance line, in accordance with its policy of complete confidentiality, will not report medical students who call the line and will keep its communications with medical students completely confidential.
